ORDER:

During the period 29-10-2012 to 2-11-2012, the ‘Nilam’ cyclone that developed in the Bay of Bengal brought heavy rains in the State after crossing the coast between North Tamilnadu and South Andhra Pradesh on 31.10.2012. During this period, the South Coastal districts of the State received heavy to very heavy rainfall. This cyclone was closely followed by Low Pressure Area (LOPAR) that formed over the coastal districts which resulted in very heavy rainfall between 2-11-2012 to 6-11-2012 in the coastal districts (Guntur to Srikakulam including Warangal and Khammam etc, of Telangana region).

2. In the reference 1st read above, the High Level Meeting conducted by the Hon’ble Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh on 05.11.2012 with regard to rescue and relief operations for Nilam Cyclone, Heavy rains and Flood, 2012, wherein the following decision was taken, “In view of the representations received from the elected representatives and the general public who are affected due to Natural Disaster including the Hon’ble Ministers of Government of Andhra Pradesh, it has been decided to supply 10 Kgs. of Rice to the families of fishermen who could not go for fishing due to ‘Nilam’ Cyclone and Flood, 2012, including the weavers whose livelihoods were affected due to inundation of the loom-pits due to above Natural Calamities. This shall be done after completion of enumeration of the above categories”.

3. In the reference 2nd read above, the Commissioner of Fisheries has requested to arrange to supply 831160 Kgs. of rice for supply to 83116 fishermen families who could not go for fishing due to “Nilam” Cyclone. The district-wise requirement of rice is as follows:

Sl. No.	District	No. of families	Quantity of rice required (in Kgs.)
1	Srikakulam	11676	116760
2	Vizianagaram	2145	21450
